REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

———

To the School Board and Citizens of Nottingham:

The present organization of the schools is as follows:

School	Grade	Teachers	Pupils
Center	1-4	Mrs. Lillian F. Spencer	27
Center	5-8	Mrs. Letha V Pratt	23

Music Teacher, Mrs. Esther G. Coombs

(Total enrollment) ..... 50

The enrollment is about the limit of capacity of the Center schoolhouse. If enrollments increase, it may become necessary to re-open the Gebig schoolhouse or transport the two upper grades to another district.

The high school enrollment from Nottingham so far this year is as follows: Newmarket 3, Dover 6, Coe-Brown Northwood Academy 7, Robinson Seminary 1, Raymond 1.

Mr. William K. Howes, Nottingham school transporter, died shortly after my annual report of last year was written. He was succeeded by Mr. Frederick Fownes.

The new state commissioner of education is Doctor Edgar Fuller. Commissioner Fuller has had training in the law as well as education. He has had experience as superintendent of schools, professor of educational administration, and director of aeronautics education in all states for the federal government. With his encouragement, lay-professional groups have been organized in different parts of the state to study various phases of educational policy. Mr. Arthur W. McDaniel was a member representing Nottingham. A New Hampshire School Boards Association has also been organized, which has held a well-attended meeting at the State House.

The school lunch alcove at the Center School has been improved by the addition of more cupboards and a serving counter. Federal aid for equipment has been made available. Federal aid is also being received through the state office at the rate of a certain amount for every "type B" balanced lunch served. Federal surplus food is also being furnished free of charge through the marketing administration. These forms of assistance enable a better lunch to be served with the amount available from the district appropriation. Mrs. Fownes, the lunch manager, attended an institute in Rochester, organized by Miss Ruth Cutter, state lunch supervisor.

The School Calendar, as adopted by the School Board, is designed to provide as near 180 days of instruction as possible. This is the generally accepted standard in well-regulated school districts. Teachers and transporters, and in some instances janitors, are engaged for this length of time and paid accordingly. Included in this total are one or two days of official institutes, generally the county institute and sometimes a rural institute. The teachers' convention is not included, as that is a voluntary organization. As the school year can not be shortened beyond the required limit except by permission of the State Board of Education, any excess of no-school days is liable to prolong school in June.

The State Board of Education has recommended to the local school districts a minimum teachers' salary of not less than $1,500. This, together with other increased costs of goods and services, will result in substantial increases in school budgets all over the state. This can not be avoided if we are to attract and hold competent teachers and provide school facilities adequate for the atomic age.

Respectfully submitted,

CHESTER W. DOE,
Superintendent of Schools,

HELP YOUR FOREST FIRE WARDEN PREVENT FIRES—IT PAYS!

---

Prevention is one of the most important phases of all fire effort. This is particularly true of forest fire control work. Preventing forest fires preserves valuable forest growth and other property, conserves man power and permits their use in productive channels, saves taxpayers' money and conserves fire fighting equipment.

The prevention of forest fires is the most important and difficult part of the work of your forest fire warden who heads a local organization set up primarily for the security of your community's forest property. Appointed by the State Forester, upon recommendation of the Selectmen, he is charged by law with the responsibility of local administration of forest fire laws, fire prevention and suppression. In his work he is aided by deputy forest fire wardens who, in emergency, may assume his power and authority. The warden is guided in his work by instructions received from the State Forester and by the District Fire Chief who represents the State Forester.

The importance and value of the work of the forest fire warden and his deputies is, perhaps, best appreciated during hazardous periods when fire danger is greatest. The public, however, looks to him at all times for speedy and economical suppression of going fires.

To properly fulfill his mission, the warden needs the generous and understanding cooperation of the public at large. He attempts to secure this cooperation by the posting of caution notices, news items and by word of mouth, always carefully explaining the necessity of restrictions imposed. In the matter of giving cooperation, however, the public often fails.

The record shows that an average of 7,300 acres of woodland are burned over by forest fires in New Hampshire each year. Analysis of fire causes reveal the fact that more than 98 percent of all forest fires are, consistently, the result of human carelessness and are preventable.

The careless smoker fails to properly extinguish his cigar, cigarette or pipe ashes or thoughtlessly throws them from the car window; the debris burner fails or refuses to consult the warden, as the law requires when the ground is not covered with snow, before attempting to burn; campers fail to properly extinguish their fires or frequently build fires when conditions are unfavorable.

The elimination of human causes from the forest fire problem is the answer. This is not as difficult of accomplishment as it might appear at first glance. Let each one who reads this—

1. Use ordinary common sense with fire in and near woodland.
2. Comply with requirements on the use of fire in and near woodland and when the ground is not covered with snow, secure written permission to burn from the forest fire warden.
3. Be careful when smoking in or near woodlands. Don't throw lighted material from moving vehicles.
4. Cooperate with and assist the warden and urge others to do so.
5. HELP YOUR FOREST FIRE WARDEN PREVENT FIRES—his efforts are only as effective as is the cooperation you give him!
